

Jerry Brown

Lots of luck
to a nice boy.

Joyce
Lemay

Go Jerry,
One of the Greatest boys I know

Justin Caruth

Best wishes in the future to a real guy May you always be happy.

Ann Summer

Well Jerry, I think all of our hard work has
finally paid off.
It is a great annual and I don't think we could have done
it without you.
You are a great guy and it has truly been an honor to be your friend. May you have all the success in the world because you deserve it.
Keep in touch.

Love ya,
Anna

Jerry - There are many things I could say to express my appreciation and thanks to you for the great confidence and help you have been to me this year. I could wish you much happiness, but I know it will come anyway. The only man worth envying is one who has found a cause bigger than himself. You are that cause I will strive to reach. Stay smart and don't ever do anything I wouldn't do. Friends forever,

Paul Hunt

To one of the truly great guys I have the pleasure of meeting. You have drive, determination, intelligence, ability, insight, faith, love and most important you have perseverance. I wish you all the luck in the world. I admire you very much. Many years of happiness and no tears. God bless

"Are you a boy . . .
OR are you a girl?"

"Studying for mid-term exams."

"I guess you're all wondering why I asked you here today."

"Yes, we have women drivers on the campus."

"Go ahead LaRue. We dare you!"

"I wish they would go ahead and make my picture so I could go back to my seat."

"Okay girls! Who put the sunflower seeds in the sewing machine?"

"Who are you building this birdhouse for--King Kong?"

Education eliminates superstition.

A typical school scene

Annual Staff at work. (?)

Miss Moorehead's government class held a Mock trial with Jerry Brown as judge. Elaine Hinson was on trial for murder. Larry Mangrum and Garry Whitsett were the defending attorneys while Kenneth Harmon and James Haley were the prosecuting attorneys. Elaine was found not guilty.

"Five for Bad Luck," Central's entry in the Metro-wide one-act play contest, brought good luck to two members of the cast: Betty Artis was ranked second and Kathy Upchurch was rated fourth in the all-star cast consisting of the four best actors and four best actresses in the competition on the Hillsboro stage.

The comedy by William Carson was entered in the judging on November 16 and was also performed at Central for junior and senior high audiences.

Set in the reception rooms of a girls' dormitory in a large college, it unfolded the story of an ugly duckling girl whose name was drawn by the best looking boy in the class for a big dance. She discovered that the boys had made up a pot of $5 as compensation to take her. To everybody's amazement, she had transformed herself into a glamorous creature, but she made herself even more repulsive than she was before to make him pay for his ungentlemanly conduct.

Other Forensic Club members of the cast included: Mary Cato, Nancy Horsley, Steve Fuller, Pat Farler, Garry Whitsett, and Michael Bates. Stage managers were Terry Farmer and Michael Robertson. Evelyn Engman was prompter and Marilyn Ramsey was property manager. The play was directed by Mrs. Ewing.

School spirit in action.

1965 Homecoming Game

Central celebrated its homecoming on Friday, October 22, with a 6-6 tie with West High School.

After an exchange of punts, West managed to push across a touchdown but failed to convert the extra point on an attempted place kick. Central later scored after a successful drive but also failed to get the extra point as Richard Smith threw incomplete to Butch Judkins.

Homecoming was a complete success, not only because of the fine efforts of the football team, but also because of the beautiful girls chosen to reign as the 1965 Homecoming Court of Central High School. The queen, Wanda Fleming and her court: Freshman, Janice Calvert; Sophomore, Cathy Smith; Junior, Sherry Smith; and Senior, Judy Calvin, were dressed in the colors of the school--blue and gold. It was obvious to the masses that true royalty was on the field at the halftime ceremonies.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Central High School, being of broken body and unsound mind and in fear of untimely death, do hereby ordain and establish this document as our last Will and Testament.

Article I

To Mr. Lowe and Mr. Levine, we leave our congratulations on their completion of a whole year of putting up with our loitering during our senior period.

Article II

To the faculty, we leave all of our old chewing gum wrappers, rubber bands, cheat sheets, paper wads and stale lunches in hope that they will gain some insight to our character through them.

Article III

To the Junior Class, we leave all of the financial difficulties of being a senior.

Article IV

To the Sophomore Class, we leave our ability for always being late to class. May they use it well.

Article V

To the Freshman Class, we leave all of our old love affairs. May they live and learn.

Article VI

To the Seventh and Eight Grades, we leave the expectation of many more years at Central. Good Luck!!!

- I, Mary Adams, leave to anyone who loves to have fun, my wits to pester the teachers with.

Appreciation

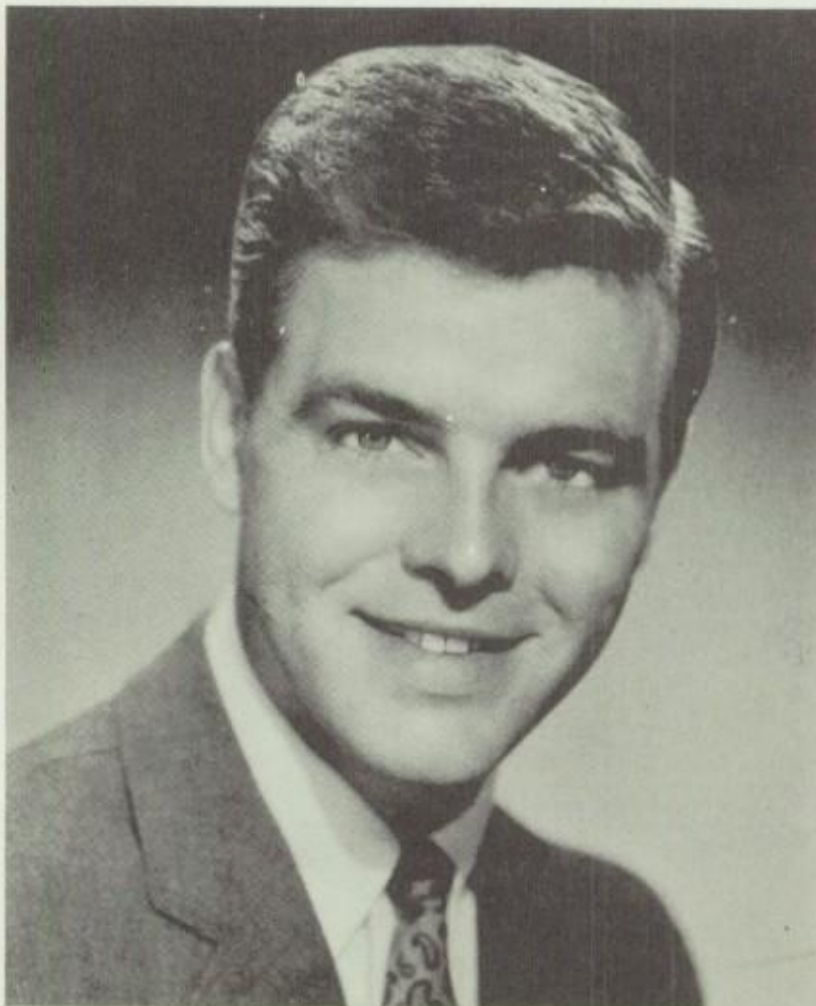

Many warm memories flow into the hearts and minds of your students, Mrs. Treanor, as we reminisce of days-gone-by in your class and in annual staff meetings. To us, you have been a lamp post in our education, a guiding light in our waywardness, and a flame of inspiration in our trials. The 1966 MEGAPHONE staff sends its sincerest thanks and best wishes to a grand lady who has unceasingly given of her wisdom, experience, and most of all, her love.
